CET
Center for Entrepreneurship & Technology

A. Richard Newton Distinguished Innovator Lecture Series
COURSE SYLLABUS (E98, E198 and E298)
Instructor Ikhlaq Sidhu

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This lecture series serves as an entry point for undergraduate and graduate curriculum sequences in entrepreneurship and innovation. The series, established in 2005 is named in honor of A. Richard Newton, a visionary technology industry leader and late dean of the University of California-Berkeley College of Engineering. The course features a selection of high-level industry speakers who share their insights on industry developments, leadership and innovation based on their careers. In addition to attending lectures, students work on 1-2 projects or reports designed to highlight the relevance of the lectures to their personal futures and to key points on entrepreneurship, or intrapreneurship.

CONTACT INFORMATION

Instructor:	Ikhlaq Sidhu, Founding Director and Chief Scientist, CET IEOR Emerging Area Professor	sidhu@berkeley.edu
GSI (Updated):	Arezu Aghaseyedjavadi	arezu@berkeley.edu
Program Manager:	Victoria Howell	vhowell@berkeley.edu

OFFICE HOURS & COMMUNICATIONS

Contact Brionna Garner (bgarner@berkeley.edu) to schedule an appointment. Participant communications via B-course.

FORMAT

The course is a series of in-person lectures from leading innovators and entrepreneurs, with an introductory kick-off from Professor Ikhlaq Sidhu. In addition, there will be a 1-2 page report on a current topic, related to entrepreneurship. In-person lectures are scheduled Tuesdays at 5 – 6:30pm and consist of 30-40 minutes of prepared remarks, followed by 10-20 minutes of Q & A. Students should plan to arrive 15 minutes prior to the beginning of each lecture (at 4:45pm) to sign in for the class. Students will be expected to participate by engaging the speaker with relevant and insightful questions. After each in-person lecture, students will also be asked to give feedback by filling out and submitting an electronic survey.

TOPICS COVERED

Leading entrepreneurs and innovators provide career insights, life lessons and their perspective on innovation in their field.

CREDIT

This is a one-credit course, offered either for a grade or pass/fail. Passing marks and grades are based on mandatory in-person lecture attendance, completion of in-person lecture surveys/forms and a required 1-2 page report.

TEXTS AND REQUIRED SUPPLIES

In addition to in-person lectures, and copies of their presentations on bcourse (as releasable), students are asked to view a selection of applicable videos, via YouTube and other via links. It is also recommended that students familiarize themselves with each week's speaker and their business topic area prior to the speaking date.

GRADING & ATTENDANCE

50% - Attendance (mandatory, any excused absence to be submitted prior to lecture and submit survey/form upon watching video of lecture) and lecture surveys
50% - Report (via google form)

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Attendance is mandatory for a passing grade. Excused absences must be submitted in writing prior to or within 24 hours of the lecture. Each absence will be judged on a case–by–case basis. To receive credit for the class missed, students must watch the video of the lecture, once it becomes available and complete the survey. If you cannot attend submit a written excuse, prior to the lecture to Arezu Aghaseyedjavadi, GSI, arezu@berkeley.edu.

Each unexcused absence will drop you one partial grade (for example from A to A-, A- to B+).

DATES & LOCATION

Students are to reserve Tuesday evenings, 5pm – 6:30pm. Our lectures will generally take place in Sibley Auditorium, Bechtel Hall. Please see b-course for locations and updates.

PLAGIARISM POLICY

Plagiarism is a form of academic dishonesty, violating the Berkeley Campus Code of Student Conduct. The campus issues a guide to understanding plagiarism, which states:

"Plagiarism means using another's work without giving credit. You must put others' words in quotation marks and cite your source (s). Citation must also be given when using others' ideas, even when those ideas are paraphrased in your own words."

Plagiarism is a serious violation of academic and student conduct rules and is punishable with a failing grade and possibly more severe action. For more information, consult the following UC Berkley websites – Berkeley Campus Code of Student Conduct sa.berkeley.edu/conduct/academic-misconduct/plagiarism

SCHEDULE – FALL 2014 SPEAKERS

September 2nd, 5pm, Orientation Sibley Auditorium		Ikhlaq Sidhu, Founding Director and Chief Scientist, Center for Entrepreneurship and Technology (CET), and IEOR Emerging Industry Professor
September 9th, 5pm Kick-Off Speaker Sibley Auditorium		Mehdi Maghsoodnia, CEO , Coach, Investor and Advisor for companies like Rafter, Inc., CafePress and Actiance
Sept 16th, 5:00 pm Sibley Auditorium		Auren Hoffman, CEO, LiveRamp (acquired by Acxiom for $310 million July 2014)
September 23rd 5:00 pm Sibley Auditorium		Ramona Pierson, co founder and CEO, Declara
September 30th 5:00 pm Sibley Auditorium		Yoky Matsuoka, VP, Technology, Nest Labs (acquired by Google for $3.2 billion January 2014)

October 7th 5pm Sibley Auditorium		Josh Budway, Head of Talent at Medallia (recently received $ 50 million in funding from Sequoia Ventures)
October 14th 5pm Sibley Auditorium		Dr. Jun Wu, author (On Top of Tides and Beauty of Mathematics) and innovator. Early employee at Google, working on Internet Search Anti-Fraud and former VP of Web Search at Tencent in China.
October 21st, 5pm Sibley Auditorium		Margret Schmidt, Chief Design Officer and VP of Design & Engineering, TiVo
October 28th, 5pm Sibley Auditorium		Nova Spivack, CEO of Bottlenose and technology futurist
November 4th, 5pm Sibley Auditorium		Jeff Rothschild, VP Infrastructure Software, Facebook and Consulting Partner, Accel Partners

November 11th		No Class Held
November 18th 5pm Sibley Auditorium		Project Due and Optional Sign-up Workshop "Should I Become and Entrepreneur", lead be Ricardo Zicari, Visiting Scholar and Director, Goethe Unibator, Goethe University, Frankfurt
November 25th		No Class Held
December 2nd Closing Speaker 5pm Sibley Auditorium		Dadi Permutter, Boardmember and Investor, former Chief Product Office and Exec. VP of Intel Corporation