A. RICHARD NEWTON LECTURE SERIES

Instructors:

Ikhlaq Sidhu and Victoria Howell

Time: Tuesdays, 5:00 PM - 6:30 PM

Location: Sibley Auditorium at Bechtel Hall

1 Unit Course

INDENG 95 | INDENG 195 | INDENG 295

(COURSE# 33739) (COURSE# 33740) (COURSE# 33215)

This lecture series serves as an entry point for undergraduate and graduate curriculum sequences in entrepreneurship and innovation. The series, established in 2005, is named in honor of A. Richard Newton--former Dean of the College of Engineering. The one-unit course features a selection of high-level industry speakers who share their insights on industry developments, leadership and innovation based on their careers. In addition to mandatory lecture attendance, students may be asked to attend an extended session or work on a report designed to highlight the relevance of the lectures to their personal futures and to key points on entrepreneurship, or intrapreneurship.
